

The Berkeley-Stanford Mixer at Morgenthaler

Monday, February 28, 2011 from 7:00 PM to 9:30 PM (PT)
Menlo Park, CA

Event Details

Stanford and Cal 's storied rivalry on and off the field may date back to the 19th century, but let's set that aside for one night for something really important -- a party.

Morgenthaler Ventures is happy to host a mixer for the student and faculty leads of Cal and Stanford's entrepreneurial associations on Monday, February 28th. This is an invite-only event for the first 40 people to register.

Thanks to our student liaisons, John Yang-Sammataro (Stanford) & Brandon Yahn and Joe Wadcan (Berkeley) for helping us invite key members of BASES, SSE Labs, STVP, EA, Lester Center and other entrepreneurial groups on campus.

Come meet your counterparts across the San Francisco Bay to:

- Mingle with fun people - fellow students, faculty, Morgenthaler partners and our portfolio companies
- Collaborate on key entrepreneurial events
- Learn what has worked, and not worked, in your respective programs

We'll provide a shuttle bus for a hassle-free commute to and from our office:

- Berkeley students: Please meet in front of Haas at 5:45 pm
- Stanford students: Please meet at Tresidder at 6:30 pm

We look forward to sharing good food and wine with our budding entrepreneurs. Go Bears. Fear the Tree.
