MORGENTHALER ANNOUNCES ADDITION TO COMM-WORKS HOLDINGS LLC

Comm-Works' acquisition of Intelex to increase company revenue by 40 percent

Boston--Aug. 23, 2006 --Morgenthaler Partners (www.morgenthaler.com) announced today that its portfolio company, Comm-Works Holdings LLC, has acquired Intelex Inc. Based in Minneapolis, Minn., Comm-Works is a single-source provider of enterprise voice, data and technology solutions for corporations and government agencies. Its customers include American Eagle, Michael's Arts & Crafts, GMAC, Brinks Home Security and Alamo/National Rent-A-Car.

Intelex is based in Carmel, Ind., and specializes in the installation of advanced voice, data and technology systems – with particular expertise in large, multi-location roll-outs for sizeable retail organizations including CVS Pharmacy and Walgreens. The combined company expects to have revenues of approximately $75 million in 2006.

The acquisition, finalized on Aug. 22, 2006, will allow management to expand its reach across North America and its competitive presence in the retail market in particular.

Leadership

Alan Lampe, Comm-Works' co-founder and chief executive officer, will lead the newly merged organization, which operates under the name of Comm-Works Holdings LLC. Paul Kaub, Jr., founder of Intelex, announced his retirement, effective immediately. John Ringis was named vice president of operations, Carmel. Morgenthaler general partners, Daniel Farrar and Peter Taft, will continue to serve on the Comm-Works board of directors.

"Joining forces makes good strategic and business sense," said Daniel Farrar, general partner at Morgenthaler. "The combined company will offer customers a wider array of best-of-breed services, and give Comm-Works a greater presence in its target markets. We are excited about the company's ability to continue growing both organically and through additional acquisitions."

Exponential growth

From 2003 through 2006, Comm-Works has achieved compound revenue growth of 37 percent (including anticipated Intelex revenues from the acquisition date through calendar year end). Comm-Works has been twice recognized by Inc. 500 as one of America's fastest-growing private companies, and as one of Deloitte Technology's Fast 500.

Reflective of its growth strategy, Comm-Works acquired telephony service providers Fortran Communications Systems and Mahon Communications Corporation in January 2005. These two acquisitions added strength in the government services sector, as well as project management expertise in large-scale campus, regional headquarters, and call center PBX and data installations. The addition of Intalex to the Comm-Works platform brings its growth rate to 40 percent, nearly twice the industry average.

According to Alan Lampe, Comm-Works CEO, "The Intalex transaction is a major stepping stone in achieving our aggressive growth goals and doubling the size of our company during the next two years."

Transaction Details

Transaction financing was led by M&I Marshall & Ilsley Bank and included NorthStar Mezzanine Partners. Baker & Hostetler LLP acted as the legal counsel for Comm-Works. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.
