

Special Report

The Midas List

Erika Brown, Claire Cain Miller and Emily Douglas 01.24.08, 6:00 PM ET

Forbes' annual Midas 100 list surveys the top tech deal makers in the world. Last year, companies that venture capitalists helped launch hauled in $34 billion from 86 public offerings and 304 acquisitions. The final quarter of 2007 saw 31 IPOs--more than any other quarter since the third quarter of 2000--worth $3 billion. Here's our assessment of who did what--and how much they and their investors profited.

The Midas List

#67 Gary R. Little

01.24.08, 6:00 PM ET

Morgenthaler Ventures

2007 Rank: NA +

Age: 49

Former seed investor at Venrock. Became a company man at Sun Microsystems in 1987, then Apple. Now uses those org skills to help entrepreneurs build companies at Morgenthaler. Big deals: Netli and NexTag. Excited about Imeem, free social network meets iTunes. Spends every winter weekend skiing the mountains in Tahoe with family.

Midas Connections

Knowledge Map Legend:

-  Firm / Employer
-  Investment / Client
-  Person